

The PBS TeacherLine/ISTE NETS•T Certificate of Proficiency Capstone Program

What is the PBS TeacherLine/ISTE Certificate Program?

A facilitated, online learning experience that allows teachers to demonstrate their knowledge and gain a deeper understanding of the ISTE National Educational Technology Standards for Teachers (NETS•T).

Who should participate in the PBS TeacherLine/ISTE Certificate Program?

This program is designed for teachers who:

- Demonstrate technical proficiency incorporating the ISTE standards in practice.
- Wish to deepen their understanding of ISTE NETS•T and demonstrate their mastery of these standards.
- Strive for continual professional growth by reflecting on their practice, exchanging ideas with colleagues, and expanding their knowledge about teaching and learning.

What can I expect as a participant in the PBS TeacherLine/ISTE Certificate Program?

Program participants can expect to:

- Review performance rubrics to clarify their expectations.
- Review examples of classroom projects that integrate technology.
- Read and review professional articles and related resources.
- Exchange ideas and strategies with other program participants.
- Share and reflect on digital artifacts that demonstrate the standards in practice in their classrooms (handouts, student work samples).
- Develop and publish a multimedia portfolio of their exemplary classroom projects.
- Work closely with a coach and other program participants to exchange feedback and improve their work.

How can I participate in the PBS TeacherLine/ISTE Certificate Program?

To learn more about the certificate program, e-mail meagan.taylor@whro.org with the subject, "Request more information about the PBS TeacherLine/ISTE Certificate Program." A Virginia's PBS TeacherLine staff member will contact you with information.

How can I become a PBS TeacherLine/ISTE Certificate Program coach?

At this time, we have no openings for Capstone coach positions.